

It's your problem

Hey! Trying to get through math and science without a scientific calculator is bogus. Figuring which one to get isn't.

Get the new HP 65 from Hewlett-Packard. Way thin. Rocket fast. Feels as cool as it looks.

Hold one. You'll flip for the 67 built-in functions...including fraction calculation.

Pretty soon, there won't be any problem you can't figure out yourself!

They're everywhere good school stuff is sold. Comes in Metallic Blue or Silver!
